Description

A series of four watercolors--Views of the Gardens of Versailles, the Orangerie, the Dragon Pond, and the Trianon.... Early 20th centuryA charming series of four antique watercolors dedicated to the Versailles estate, offering various views of the gardens and their architecture: the Orangerie, the Dragon Fountain, the Trianon, as well as a view of a staircase and balustrade in the park.Executed with finesse in a luminous and delicate palette, these watercolors vividly capture the atmosphere of the Versailles gardens: orderly perspectives, fountains and sculptures, large decorative vases, stone staircases, and lush vegetation.The four works are presented in beautiful matching black and gold frames with green mats, forming a particularly harmonious decorative ensemble.
