Description

An elegant walnut sideboard credenza with two doors and two drawers, raised on shaped bracket feet. The door and drawer panels feature a moulded profile, a decorative motif that repeats identically on the sides of the piece, reflecting the care taken in its execution. The drawers have round metal knobs, while the right-hand door retains its original wrought-iron lock. The top has a moulded edge with a slight overhang. The interior is fitted with a central shelf, and the back is constructed of joined boards. The walnut surface has a fine warm patina, with clearly legible grain.

Provenance: Emilia Romagna, early 19th century

Dimensions: 125 x 45 cm, height 104 cm
