Description

An antique two-door wardrobe cabinet ("stipo"), each door divided into three shaped panels, with great charm. The piece retains its original green-toned lacquer finish -- clear evidence of an authentic, untouched patina. The top cornice is moulded and the base is shaped. The wrought-iron lock is exposed on the right-hand door. The interior has five shelves set on fixed uprights. The back is built from two tiers of vertical boards. Origin: Tuscany, 1600 Dimensions: 150 x 45 cm, height 245 cm
