Description

Alfred Arthur BRUNEL DE NEUVILLE French painter (1852-1941) "Still Life with Apples and Grapes". Oil on canvas, signed lower right. Relined and restored in 2024. Overall in good condition. Dimensions: 65 x 54 cm unframed, 87 x 76 cm framed. Alfred Arthur Brunel-Neuville (or Brunel de Neuville), born in Passy in 1852 and died in Sèvres in 1941, was a French genre painter, known for his still lifes and animal paintings, particularly of cats. His works can be seen in several museums, such as those in Béziers, Brest, Château-Thierry, and Louviers. Brunel de Neuville was also elected a member of the Salon des Artistes Français in 1907. His works are often considered examples of high-quality still life painting.
