Description

A very beautiful Art Deco vase made of fine glazed earthenware, produced by the Boch Frères Keramis factory in La Louvière, based on a design by Charles Catteau (1880-1966). Ovoid in shape and slightly tapered at the neck, it features a remarkable polychrome stylized floral design, characteristic of Catteau's work in the 1920s. The floral compositions are rendered in a particularly luminous palette of cobalt blue, turquoise, green, and orange-brown, standing out against an ivory-white background of crackled enamel. They are framed by vertical bands accented with blue and turquoise stripes, giving the vase a beautiful, typically Art Deco graphic composition. Beneath the base are the stamp of the Boch Frères - La Louvière factory, the design number D.957, and the signature Ch. Catteau. This D.957 design is
