

PROANTIC

LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Jean Perzel (1892-1986) Art Deco Lamp, Model 517

2 400 EUR

Signature : Jean PERZEL (1892-1986)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Rare large Art Deco lamp by Jean Perzel (1892-1986), signed "PERZEL" on the base, an authentic period model 517 from around 1940, featuring a refined gilded bronze base with a slender conical shape, supporting a lacquered pyramidal shade with a central section adorned with a stepped, openwork gilded brass band and an opaque glass lining. Electrical components are in good working order; the lamp is in excellent condition; dimensions: 56 cm high x 40 cm wide. REFERENCES: A historic lamp by Perzel exhibited at the Salon and awarded a prize in 1936; it had captivated the jury of the international lighting competition, which awarded it first prize. It is listed in the catalogue raisonné of Jean Perzel (1892-1986) under No. 517; note that it is still available for purchase, with options

Dealer

Galerie Tramway

marchand d'art, gestion du patrimoine

Mobile : 06.65.52.05.40

D-751

Amboise 37400

starting at EUR6,520, at the Perzel boutique in Paris (see document) Since 1923, the Perzel workshops have carried on a tradition of lighting design that celebrates modernity and innovation. A living heritage nourished by a vision, craftsmanship, and passion spanning three generations. - Art & Décoration, 1936, model reproduced on p. 221; Jean Perzel Luminaires, vintage catalog reproduced under reference 517 - Similar model listed on page 457 in Le luminaire moderne by G. Janneau, Ed. C. Moreau, SNR Baudoin