Description

Each plate bears the mark of the manufacture: the stylised castle within a circle and the cursive signature "Bassanello" Italy.

The Bassanello manufactory of Civita Castellana owes its reputation to Marquis Miscitelli.

Under his direction, Bassanello developed a refined production distinguished by reinterpreted classical forms and excellent mastery of clays and glazes.

During the first half of the 20th century, the workshop gained notable recognition both in Italy and abroad. Condition: very good overall condition; no cracks or visible restorations; light wear consistent with age.
