470 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 29.1

Description

Large Imari-style platter. Decorated in the center with four carp playing among the waves. The rim is adorned with various floral motifs set within petal-shaped cartouches. Japan, Arita, late 17th or early 18th century. Diameter: 29.1 cm. Condition: excellent; slight wear on the gilding. There is a small area where firing particles have become embedded on the upper fin of the carp on the right. A rare subject; the carp is considered a symbol of perseverance and endurance.
