Description

Large Louis XVI-style lamp with a gilded bronze frame. It rests on a circular, four-legged base featuring openwork garlands with interlaced patterns. The body--a bulbous baluster vase with a tapered neck--is adorned with two gilded bronze ornaments beginning with mascarons depicting chubby-cheeked putti. The original oil regulation system is particularly intricate. Now converted to electricity, this lamp has retained all its charm! Height of the lamp alone: 63 cm; with the lampshade: 83 cm. Diameter: 50 cm
