Description

19th-century French mirror, crafted from finely carved wood and gilded with gold and gold leaf. The large frame features rich decoration with floral and plant motifs, typical of French craftsmanship of the period, with elegant corner panels and moldings of remarkable quality. The mirror is original and contemporary to the frame, preserved with the natural and charming traces of age--such as slight ripples and a patina--which attest to its authenticity and historic craftsmanship. A piece with great visual impact, ideal for living rooms, entryways, or formal spaces, perfect for both classical settings and high-end eclectic interiors. An authentic antique mirror, unrestored in its original structure, with its original patina and gilding.
