Description

Sculptural spiral staircase made of solid oak and marquetry. Designed as both a work of art and a piece of furniture. The rounded triangular steps are attached to the central spiral-shaped shaft made of solid oak, with a circular base one meter in diameter, featuring a radiating pattern of oak and walnut marquetry, resting on a tripod base with a tubular shaft. The sculpted, pointed top creates a slender silhouette. Decorative object. Very good condition. Circa 1950.
