Description

An elegant vintage ring in 18-karat white gold, featuring a refined setting that showcases a natural Burmese ruby at its center. The ruby, an oval faceted cut, weighs approximately 1.55 ct and stands out for its intense, warm, and brilliant red color. Set symmetrically on either side of the central gem are square-cut diamonds, which lend additional brilliance and harmony to the overall design. The combination of the ruby's deep red, the brilliance of the diamonds, and the hue of the white gold gives the piece a sophisticated and timeless look, characteristic of the finest vintage jewelry.
