

Whist Counters, Japan, Meiji Period

750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Other

Length : 9,6

Width : 5,5

Description

Pair of 19th-century Japanese whist counters with ornate metal bases; both feature the same scene of cranes in a landscape blooming with chrysanthemums. Ivory keys inlaid with stone and mother-of-pearl insects. Signed on the frame beneath one of the flaps; one signature is in the upper right, the other in the lower left. Japan, Meiji period; the set is in perfect condition.
Length: 9.6 cm Width: 5.5 cm

Dealer

Intérieurs Singuliers

Bronzes, objets de collection, curiosités, design.

Mobile : 0687782236

126 rue de talant

Dijon 21000