Description

An elegant Louis XV-style drop-front secretary desk dating from the late 19th century. The piece features a front richly decorated with floral marquetry, crafted from various wood veneers in warm tones. The upper section opens via a flap, revealing an interior fitted with several small drawers and compartments. The lower section opens with three large drawers, adorned with gilded bronze handles featuring plant motifs. The piece rests on four curved legs, topped with delicate gilded bronze feet, emphasizing the piece's elegance and refinement. The marquetry, featuring geometric and floral motifs, is particularly decorative and highlights the flowing lines characteristic of Louis XV-style furniture. An elegant and functional piece, ideal as a secretary desk, writing desk, or storage unit,
