Description

A line bracelet composed of a series of round-cut natural sapphires, each displaying a beautiful, deep, luminous blue color, flanked on either side by two 8/8-cut diamonds. The links' distinctive openwork design, combined with the regular arrangement of sapphires and diamonds, gives the bracelet a lovely lace-like effect. The piece also stands out for its extremely flexible joints, which allow it to naturally conform to the wrist and make it very comfortable to wear. The bracelet is crafted from 375/°° (9 KT) gold and 925/°° silver, as attested by the clover and swan hallmarks. It features a ratchet clasp that is invisible once the bracelet is closed, complemented by a safety loop and a safety chain, ensuring it stays securely in place. Note: Three links have been repaired by soldering directly below the clasp. This repair is visible when the bracelet is laid flat, but becomes virtually imperceptible once the piece is worn, without detracting from its overall aesthetic or its great flexibility. More than just a simple line bracelet, this piece stands out for its design that is both understated and sophisticated: the regular alternation of sapphires and diamonds, combined with the openwork design and the extreme flexibility of the links, creates a truly exquisite lace-like pattern around the wrist, while maintaining a remarkable visual lightness. Total gross weight: 16.70 g Condition: imperceptible micro-scratches, three soldered links, characteristic natural inclusions in the sapphires and diamonds not visible to the naked eye Payment can be made entirely online via the website.
