Description

A striking pair of vintage earrings composed of three graduated circular elements arranged in a graceful cascading design. The lower circles are beautifully framed in 18-karat gold and set with natural amber displaying a remarkable uniform honey-cognac colour. The amber is particularly appealing for its rich, warm and exceptionally even tone, reminiscent of golden honey and fine cognac. Its luminous, translucent character enhances the refined warmth of the gold setting, creating an elegant contrast and a sophisticated overall effect. Measuring approximately 7 cm in length, these earrings have a graceful elongated silhouette and an elegant sense of movement when worn. A distinctive and highly decorative piece, ideal for collectors of fine vintage jewellery and exceptional amber. A piece of
