

Dining Table, 6-foot Louis-philippe Style In Walnut, 19th-century

780 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

Large Six-Foot Louis-Philippe Dining Table in Walnut - 19th Century A beautiful, large Louis-Philippe dining table in walnut, dating from the 19th century. It features an elegant tabletop with rounded edges, showcasing the beautiful hues and warm grain of the walnut. It rests on six turned and fluted legs, particularly well-designed, which lend it great elegance while ensuring excellent stability when extended. This table features an ingenious extension system that allows it to transform from a table with balanced proportions into a very large reception table. It is presented with two extensions, bringing its total length to 2.96 meters. The mechanism also allows for the addition of a third extension, making it possible to create an even larger table. A beautiful Louis-Philippe table, both decorative and

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200

functional, particularly notable for its six legs, large dimensions, and capacity to accommodate guests.Period: 19th centuryStyle: Louis-PhilippeMaterial: walnutNumber of legs: 6Extension leaves: 2, with the option to add a thirdDimensions when closed:Height: 65 cmWidth: 135 cmDepth: 140 cmLength when open with both extension leaves: 296 cmBeautiful antique patina and signs of wear consistent with its era.