

Secret Chamberlain's Collar Bearing The Coat Of Arms Of Pius XI--20th Century

2 100 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 51

Description

A secret chamberlain's necklace in gilded metal, composed of alternating links with seven oval medallions in blue enamel, each centered with the monogram "HC." It is completed by a pendant bearing the papal insignia. This insignia was crafted by Tanfani & Bertarelli, a leading Roman firm specializing in the manufacture of objects, insignia, caskets, and accessories for the Vatican. The necklace, 51 cm long, is preserved in its original red leather case, adorned with gilded metal fittings bearing the papal coat of arms of Pius XI, Ambrogio Damiano Achille Ratti (1857-1939), Pope from 1922 to 1939. The coat of arms classically features the tiara and the keys of Saint Peter. In good condition. A collector's item. Reference 880
