Description

Artist: Circle of David Teniers the Younger (1610-1690): The Traveling Optician Date: 17th century Technique: Oil on wood panel Dimensions: 19 × 13 cm Mark: Signed lower left. Provenance: On the reverse, two old collection labels as well as the Christie's auction house reference number 726 FP. Condition: Good condition, consistent with its age. A genre painting rich in subtle details, attributed to the circle of David Teniers the Younger (1610-1690). The composition follows the characteristic tradition of 17th-century Flemish genre painting, with figures rendered with finesse and details executed with great precision. The mark "726 FP" on the reverse also allows the work's provenance to be traced in the archives of Christie's auction house. According to Christie's records, the
