Description

A single bed designed by Roger Landault for Ligne Roset in France around 1965. Crafted from oak veneer, it rests on four tapered legs and features a structure with clean, elegant lines. The headboard and footboard are upholstered with nylon cane--a material emblematic of the decorative trends of the 1960s--while a small built-in side shelf provides a functional touch characteristic of Roger Landault's modernist furniture. Manufacturer: Ligne Roset, France, circa 1965. Mattress dimensions: 90 × 190 cm.
