Description

Wall-mounted sideboard made of solid pine, part of a furniture collection designed for residences in Les Arcs 1800 in the early 1970s. The piece features three horizontal shelves and a sculpted side profile, typical of the design language developed for the interiors of Les Belles Challes. The understated lines and the craftsmanship of the pine reflect the spirit of modernized Savoyard furniture, designed to be both sturdy and warm. Authentic piece sourced directly from Les Arcs. Provenance: Les Arcs 1800, Les Belles Challes residence. France, circa 1970. Bibliography: Charlotte Perriand, L'Oeuvre Complète, Volume 4, 1968-1999, Jacques Barsac, Norma Éditions, p. 253
