Description

Signed oil on canvas depicting a romantic scene in an aristocratic park, in the refined style of 19th-century Romantic painting. In a lush, peaceful setting, several figures dressed in elegant attire gather in the shade of a majestic tree, facing a classical mansion. Around a carefully set table, some are playing cards, while a young woman, standing slightly apart, appears to be reading aloud to the group. The composition is enlivened by the presence of two dogs in the foreground, adding a touch of spontaneity and movement to this elegant vacation scene. The work stands out for its gentle atmosphere, its intimate character, and the attention to detail in the figures, costumes, and setting. It is presented in a remarkable antique gilded wooden frame, richly carved, which elegantly highlights its decorative
