Description

Émile Gallé - Gourd-Shaped Vase with Clematis Decoration
Elegant gourd-shaped cameo glass vase with a softly opalescent yellow ground, decorated with a delicate floral composition of clematis in shades of purple, finely engraved with acid. The flowers and foliage extend naturally across the rounded body, creating a harmonious and highly naturalistic composition characteristic of the Art Nouveau period. The generously rounded body is topped by a subtly flared, undulating rim, while the interplay of opalescence and transparency gives the glass exceptional depth and softness. Signed "Gallé" in the decoration. A fine example of Émile Gallé's celebrated glasswork, reflecting his fascination with the natural world and his mastery of cameo glass.
