280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted metal

Description

Large serving tray made of lacquered sheet metal, decorated with a scattering of gold stars on a black background. French piece from the Napoleon III period, mid-19th century, circa 1850-1860. A beautiful decorative accessory; the design is simple yet very chic, in the style of Madeleine Castaing. Very good overall condition; the tray shows no corrosion, though there is some wear on the lacquer. Length: 55 cm Width: 42 cm
