

Allegory Of The Hunt, Hunting Scene; Napoleon III-era Bronze Miniature On A Faux Porphyry Backg

280 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

An interesting miniature with an allegorical hunting scene, in the form of a trophy of hunting weapons--a rifle, a hunting dagger, a game bag, and a whip--from the first half of the 19th century. The miniature consists of the trophy in gilded bronze, set against a background painted to resemble green porphyry marble within an oval frame of blackened wood with visible gilded brass trim. On the back is a piece of antique paper. Ideal for complementing a hunting trophy room or a 19th-century neoclassical decor with one of those small details that create an authentic atmosphere. In very good condition, composed of antique elements; the piece works very well and looks natural. Beautiful quality gilding and chasing. Frame: 22 cm x 18.8 cm
