Description

Large bronze sculpture "The Thinker" signed by HENRY FUGERE (1872-1944). A magnificent and significant allegorical sculpture in authentic bronze titled "THE THINKER" or "The Young Poet," created by the famous French sculptor HENRY FUGERE, a student of Jules-Clément Cavellier and a regular exhibitor at the Salon des Artistes Français. The work depicts a young man in a classic pose of introspection, seated on a rocky outcrop, holding a quill in his right hand next to an engraved manuscript. The signature "H. Fugère" is directly engraved into the bronze on the base. The original plaque on the front bears the inscription "LE PENSEUR." Very beautiful original patina with nuanced brown tones and subtle highlights; in very good condition. Period: late 19th century/early 20th century. An ideal
