Description

Small side table with three shelves, Louis XVI style. Elegant small side table made of precious wood, rectangular in shape, featuring a drawer at the front and resting on four tapered legs. It features three tabletops decorated with geometric marquetry, adorned with small stylized floral motifs and framed by dark wood fillets. The top shelf is embellished with an openwork gilt-bronze railing, as well as uprights and corners accented with gilt-bronze elements featuring foliage motifs and neoclassical-inspired friezes. The front opens with a drawer made of precious wood veneer, featuring a gilded bronze handle with a motif of a knotted ribbon and foliage. The side posts, with a rounded cross-section, extend into four tapered legs, ending in small gilded bronze feet. The piece captivates with the richness of its veneers, the
