Description

Stunning Gien earthenware shellfish set, "Grands Crustacés" model, 17 pieces. Slightly ivory in color, it consists of 15 plates, a soup tureen, and a large oval platter. The designs are hand-painted. This model was created in 1923 and reissued in 1938 and 1961, featuring Art Deco-inspired designs and shapes. The plates feature a rim decorated with 6 rows of scales and a design of seashells or crustaceans, with 11 different designs. The round soup tureen, with a double handle, is decorated with a seashell. The oval platter depicts a lobster. Dimensions: Plate diameter: 26 cm. Soup tureen: Diameter: 25 cm / Height: 10 cm. Serving dish: 67.5 cm by 27.5 cm. Overall in very good condition. A simple and elegant design that highlights the beauty of the decorations thanks to the wing-like scales,
