composed of flowers, palmettes, foliage, and stylized birds, characteristic of the Hereke style. The main field is framed by a primary border adorned with floral motifs and cartouches, flanked by narrower secondary borders. Color Palette: A harmonious blend of rich, vibrant colors: ruby red, royal blue, ivory, gold, emerald green, and beige. The sheen of the silk gives the rug shimmering highlights that shift with the light. Finishes: Silk fringes on both sides, neatly finished selvages. Why buy this Hereke rug? An investment: Hereke silk rugs are highly sought-after collector's items, whose value tends to increase over time. A unique work of art: Each Hereke rug is the result of many months--or even years--of meticulous work by master weavers. A touch of luxury and elegance: This rug will add a touch of sophistication and prestige to your living room, bedroom, or office. The incomparable softness of silk: Walking barefoot on this rug is a true sensory pleasure.
