Description

Gilded Bronze Sculpture, Pierrot the Musician, Signed E. Favart. An elegant gilded bronze sculpture depicting Pierrot the Musician, signed "E. Favart" on the pedestal, late 19th - early 20th century. The figure is depicted standing in a theatrical and expressive pose, holding a guitar or mandolin. The wide pleated collar, buttoned costume, cuffs, and animated posture evoke the world of the Commedia dell'Arte and the Belle Époque taste for poetic and musical subjects. The sculpture features a beautiful golden patina, with natural hues and slight age-related wear. The base bears a legible signature, likely "E. Favart," though it cannot be definitively attributed to an identified artist. A beautiful decorative piece, ideal for a collection of bronzes, musical subjects, theatrical figures, or sculptures featuring
