Description

PANC181 - An elegant set consisting of four original Thonet-style bentwood chairs, crafted using the famous steam-bending technique that made Austro-Central European design iconic between the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The chairs feature the classic black-lacquered bentwood frame, with a ring-shaped backrest and a seat made of woven Vienna straw--a distinctive element of the Thonet style. The original "THONET - Mundus" mark is visible on the frame, a guarantee of authenticity and historical production. This model has become one of the symbols of European design, widely used in historic cafés, bistros, and elegant settings of the era. The chairs retain their original charm with natural signs of aging, which attest to their history and authenticity. 20th century. Dimensions:
