Description

Sideboard with an upper section designed by Silvio Coppola for Bernini in the 1960s-1970s, an example of mid-century Italian design. Crafted from walnut-veneered wood, it features a sturdy structure with hinged-door compartments in the lower section, offering ample storage space. The upper section, with open shelves, includes original Bernini-branded ceramics, adding a distinctive and authentic touch. The overall condition is good, with a patina that reflects its age and use. This piece fits perfectly into spaces that favor vintage aesthetics and functionality.MOMOMO0325007
