

Rectangular Glass Panel With Glazing Beads, Gilded Frame, And A Pediment Adorned With Laurel Branches

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 76

Height : 117

Description

Rectangular mirror with glazing beads, gilded frame, pediment adorned with laurel branches. Mirror with glazing beads and pediment, Louis XV style - Gilded wood. Stunning mirror with carved and gold-leafed wooden glazing beads, featuring a shell-shaped pediment. Sumptuous openwork pediment with rocaille decoration: a leafy shell in the central medallion, asymmetrical volutes, foliage, and vine tendrils. Frame with a twisted frieze, interlaced molding, and heart-shaped rays. Spandrels with rocaille palmettes at the top and bottom, beaded molding around the inner edge. Glass with mirror frames (central mirror + 4 peripheral mirrors).

Dealer

Le grenier de la cassine

Antiquités

Mobile : 0651107452

173 Route de Saint-Ciers

Val-de-Livenne 33820