Description

Eugène Henri CAUCHOIS (Rouen, 1850 - Paris, 1911) Large still life with flowers, an incense burner, a mandolin, sheet music, and the coats of arms of the House of Orléans Oil on canvas (1884) Signed lower right H. Cauchois, monogrammed and dated on the reverse H.C. / 1884 122 x 150 cm Modern gilded and patinated wooden frame Dimensions with frame: 134 x 163 cm Note: The coat of arms of the House of Orléans, surmounted by a marquis's crown, is visible in the upper right and left corners of the composition, suggesting that the work was commissioned by a member of the Orléans family to adorn a castle, given the large dimensions of the painting.
