1 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Width : 85

Height : 70

Description

Italian wall mirror from the 1970s, attributed to Fontana Arte. Composition consisting of two overlapping layers: a large bronze-tinted mirrored glass panel with rounded corners forms the frame, with a rectangular mirror set in the center. Back mounted on a panel with a metal hanging system. Dimensions: approximately 85 × 70 cm. No Fontana Arte markings or labels have been found to date; the attribution is therefore based on the design, the materials, and comparison with documented Italian models from the period. Condition consistent with its age, with a few visible marks and isolated signs of wear. See photographs.
