Description

A magnificent "fish motif" dinner service in Limoges porcelain by Bernardaud, 22-piece set. Stunning polychrome screen-printed design featuring shellfish and rockfish, based on drawings by Chièze and Pradier. The "Aries" shape, characteristic of the late 1960s, was created by Raymond Loewy in 1967. It includes 20 dinner plates with 6 different designs, a large platter (torpedo-shaped), and a gravy boat on a matching tray. Plate dimensions: 24.5 cm by 23 cm. Dish dimensions: 58.5 cm by 22.5 cm. Sauceboat dimensions: approximately 18 cm by 22 cm. Signed on the bottom. In very good condition. A superb and complete set. Decors that stand out from the usual fish dinnerware sets, and a very original color palette!!! Can be sold in parts--please contact us!!! Chic and vintage.
