

"chasaji" Meiji Tea Measuring Spoon With Carvings Of A Downy Bird And A Pomegranate, Shibayan

1 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Description

An exceptional carved tea scoop depicting a dormouse with horn-inlaid eyes and detailed fur, nibbling on the seeds of a split pomegranate. On the concave side, a mother-of-pearl inlay in the Shibayama technique depicts a peony branch and a butterfly. In perfect condition, no chips or cracks! Japan, Meiji period

1868-1912 Dimensions: 14 cm x 4.7 cm x 1.8 cm

Dealer

Collection

Rare & Unusual Objects

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000