Description

Black-lacquered sewing table / work table with gilded Chinese-inspired decoration - 19th century
Elegant sewing table, also known as a work table, made of black-lacquered wood, richly adorned with gilded Chinese-inspired decoration. The band features delicate scenes depicting figures in architectural landscapes, surrounded by floral and plant motifs. The openwork legs, also embellished with gilded motifs, rest on a base topped by spectacular claw-shaped carved feet. The upper top, with its undulating contours, lifts to reveal a compartmentalized interior designed to hold sewing accessories and small handicrafts. The underside of the top is also meticulously decorated with floral motifs and a central Oriental-style scene. A particularly charming decorative piece, representative of the European
