Description

A two-part sideboard in lacquered fir with carved and silver-plated details, typical of mid-19th-century Italy. The open upper section features four tempered glass shelves, supported by finely carved posts adorned with foliage and floral motifs, further embellished with painted medallions depicting birds. The elegantly shaped cornice features a central image of the Madonna and Child, framed within a richly carved oval adorned with ribbons, volutes, and floral garlands. The sturdy base is characterized by four paneled doors, whose stiles echo the decorative motifs above. The turned legs complete the piece, providing stability and a touch of refinement. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual
