Description

Louis XV-style inlaid secretary desk - Floral decoration - Marble top
Elegant narrow-bodied drop-leaf secretary desk, crafted from precious wood and richly decorated with floral marquetry. The front features exquisite marquetry work composed of scrolls, flowers, and foliage in light wood, standing out against a warm-toned veneer. The sides are also adorned with large marquetry floral bouquets. The top section opens with a drawer, followed by a flap that forms a writing surface. This reveals an interior featuring niches, a shelf, and two small drawers. The lower section features three curved drawers. The piece is embellished with decorative bronze fittings, lock plates, finials, and feet. It is topped with a veined red marble top, which follows the curve of the front. A particularly decorative piece thanks to its
