Description

Napoleon III Display Cabinet in Blackened Wood with Gilded Accents - 19th Century
Elegant period Napoleon III display cabinet, crafted from blackened wood and embellished with delicate gilded accents. The lower section, with a slightly curved front, opens with two glass doors for displaying collectibles, porcelain, or glassware. The interior features a shelf. The upper section forms an elegant two-tiered shelf, which is particularly decorative. It is punctuated by a series of slender turned and openwork columns, framed by scroll-carved posts. The richly carved crown features a prominent motif in the shape of a stylized shell, surrounded by foliage. The entire piece is accented with beaded moldings, foliage, and gilded ornaments, creating a beautiful contrast with the depth of the blackened wood. A
