Description

Vicente de Paredes - Artistic Raffle Project for the Alfonso XIII FoundationA remarkable work on paper by Vicente de Paredes, a Spanish painter and illustrator of the late 19th century.Created in gouache and watercolor, this composition is likely an original design for a poster or promotional flyer for an "Artistic Raffle to Benefit the Alfonso XIII Foundation."The artist brings together several symbols of the Spanish monarchy: a portrait of the young King Alfonso XIII, a crown, coats of arms, and a female figure in traditional dress. The composition is rendered with great artistic freedom in an elegant palette of gray, white, black, and brown.Visible inscriptions: "One thousand tickets at ten francs" and "Souvenir of Biarritz."Work signed "de Paredes" in the lower left corner.Presented under
