Description

Louis XVI-Period Mahogany Ceremonial Chest of Drawers, circa 1780. Remarkable Louis XVI-Period Mahogany and Mahogany-Veneer Chest of Drawers, resting on tapered legs with fluted shafts ending in gilded bronze feet. This chest of drawers, which opens at the front with three wide drawers, is topped with a superb veined gray marble top bordered by a gilded, openwork brass molding. Its rounded side panels feature fluted grooves embellished with asparagus-shaped motifs and scrapers. Beautiful and rich gilded and chiseled bronze ornamentation, including rings, feet, drawer pulls, lock plates, the gallery, drawer frames, and panels. Very fine wood, beautiful patina. Parisian furniture of very fine craftsmanship, with understated and refined lines. This chest of
