Scandinavian Style Extendable Teak Table - Ligne Roset

1 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Let yourself be charmed by this extendable teak table, a true icon of Scandinavian-inspired design from the 60s. Marketed by the famous publisher Ligne Roset, whose French know-how has marked the history of contemporary furniture, it perfectly combines retro elegance and great functionality. Ideal for optimizing your dining room, this model is equipped with two integrated sliding extensions (pull system) hidden under its main top. It adapts in the blink of an eye to your convivial meals. Its tapered compass legs, typical of the mid-century era, bring an airy lightness to your decoration. Web exclusive: this product is not stocked in the showroom. Dimensions: H 74 x L 150 (up to 230 with extensions) x W 92 cm. Condition: Good general condition, with slight roughness consistent with its age. By
