Description

IN THE MANNER OF CARLO SCARPA
(1906-1978) Cylindrical vase in blown Murano glass with a vibrant lemon yellow hue, featuring a hammered (battuto) or etched (scavo) textured surface finish. Italy, Murano. Circa 1940. H_30 cm D_10 cm approx. Excellent condition. This surface treatment, reminiscent of gem-cutting or ancient textures, aligns with the modernist Venini creations directed by Carlo Scarpa. The combination of a sleek silhouette and artisanal material craftsmanship lends a sculptural presence highly sought after by 20th-century Italian glass collectors.
