Description

A painting dated "93" for 1893 depicting a typical market scene from markets in Algeria, Morocco, Tunisia, or Egypt. In this painting by a certain A. Louvel, one can see vendors selling pottery, wickerwork, and hay, rendered with particularly remarkable attention to detail; indeed, the artist has carefully depicted both the wicker baskets and the strands of hay. This painting comes from a local estate; it is sold unframed. There are some missing sections and slight lifting, as visible in the last photos, and it will also need a new varnish. Optionally, I can frame it with an antique Montparnasse frame. Shipping available via Chronopost for: France: EUR30 Europe: EUR50 Other countries: EUR100
