Description

Jean-Étienne Karnec 1865-1934 Jean-Étienne Karnec was a landscape and seascape painter active in France from the late 19th century through the early decades of the 20th century. Art market dictionaries and databases generally indicate that he was born in 1865 in Austria and died in 1934. Étienne Karnec is primarily known for his landscapes, seascapes, harbor views, and scenes of rivers and canals. His work also reveals a marked interest in Orientalist subjects, which he interprets with great pictorial freedom. Although he was primarily active in Rouen, he also worked in Paris and Venice, two cities that fueled his inspiration. In several of his Orientalist compositions, Karnec employs a broad brushstroke and generous, thickly applied paint, which softens the contours and emphasizes
