

Double-sided Louis XV Flat-topped Desk, With Marquetry And Bronze, 19th-century

1 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Double-Sided Louis XV-Style Flat Desk with Marquetry and Bronzes - 19th Century A very elegant double-sided Louis XV-style flat desk from the 19th century, featuring rich wood veneer and marquetry work in various wood species. This desk is designed and crafted on both sides, allowing it to be displayed in the center of a room. The main façade features five drawers: a large central drawer and four side drawers arranged in pairs. The other side mirrors the decoration and quality of craftsmanship found throughout the piece, giving the cabinet a truly complete finish on all sides. It rests on four elegant, curved legs that are fully veneered and finished with beautiful bronze feet. The legs are adorned with large bronze finials featuring rocaille decoration. The top, with its rounded

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200

corners, is framed by a substantial bronze mold and upholstered in antique leather with gilded decoration, retaining a beautiful patina from use. A beautiful double-sided desk, particularly decorative, featuring high-quality marquetry and substantial bronze trim, perfectly representative of 19th-century Louis XV taste. Period: 19th century Style: Louis XV Dimensions: H. 79 × W. 146.5 × D. 78.5 cm