Description

In the style of Benjamin-Constant, circa 1860 Bathsheba at Her Bath Oil on unstretched canvas 46 x 33.5 cm No frame - some accidents This Orientalist sketch depicts Bathsheba having her feet washed by her servants. The technique--featuring vivid colors that contrast with darker areas, highlighting the figures and the setting--the brushwork, which is both sketchy and precise, as well as the Orientalist subject matter, are strongly reminiscent of the work of Benjamin-Constant (1845-1902).
