Pair Of Large Plaster Bas-reliefs Depicting An Allegory Of Putti - Late 19th / Early 20th

1 600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Stucco

Width : 137

Description

A dramatic and imposing pair of rectangular plaster plaques, finely modeled in bas-relief. The compositions feature a cheerful, dynamic arrangement of winged putti and cupids reclining amidst soft clouds, engaged in various allegorical activities (reading, music, and floral motifs). The modeling is soft and highly sculptural, drawing upon the great European sculptural tradition of the 17th and 18th centuries and echoing the style of François Duquesnoy's celebrated putti. Their impressive size (over 1.3 meters in length each) makes them perfect for use as outdoor pieces, as decorative elements in classical drawing rooms, or to complete elegant, theatrical interiors.
